Name: Ibrahim Farag
Home: London, United Kingdom
Occupation: CEO
Comments: "Hi, I am a father of two daughters. I spent the last 20 years of my life across five different countries where I lived and worked in various managerial levels a senior banking executive. Travelling and volunteering are my interests in my free time, for example I am a mentor at the CFA society in UK. I have also served and managed fundraising for various charities and NGOs. Furthermore, I have a similar experience before where I previously worked with other owners to develop and serve the public interest on a similar holiday destination. Marriott Village has been on top my favorite travel destinations, and that is why I pledge to dedicate time and bring about my financial, technology, and management experience to serve the community and owners."

Name: Kara JohnsonCraven
Home: APO, United States
Occupation: Teacher
Comments: "Having been owners in Paris for quite some time, I have lived through the ups and downs of the property. I would like to support the efforts of the Board by joining them. As a teacher, I have had to make decisions with what is best for my students and not be the popular person; I view working for the Board as very similar. There are complicated issues and, having been an owner for so long, I feel it is my turn to volunteer my time to ensure the property continues to be prosperous and a place for all to enjoy!"

Name: David Johnston
Home: Wellesbourne, United Kingdom
Occupation: Chairman Coventry Cathedral Finance Committee, Justice of the Peace, Company Director
Comments: "As a Marriott owner for many years my family are committed to maintaining the quality of the Marriott Resort experience into which we all invested. Owners for 21 years in Paris, Marbella, Phuket, and APC, we always use our weeks for family holidays with friends, not swapping to other resorts. I am a Paris Board Member seeking re-election and believe continuity in our historic dealings with Marriott is vital if we are to scrutinize expenditure effectively. Our Resort is complicated, facing issues following the Virus Pandemic, and requires experience gained on other MVCI Boards (APC, PBC). I have worked hard to study and understand the Resorts and I wish to use my knowledge and experience for the benefit owners. 59, married with two children, I am the Chair of Finance Committee for Coventry Cathedral, a Magistrate (JP) and my Grandsons are the 4th generation of my family to enjoy our resorts."
