Candidate Profiles

Candidates listed in alphabetical order

Name: Olaleye Adebisi
Home: Ikoyi Lagos, Nigeria
Occupation: Tax Attorney
Comments: "I joined Arthur Andersen in 1991, worked there for 11 and a half years and left as a Group Head upon implosion-the year I was to become a Partner. From the experience gained, I set up my own Tax Advisory Firm which I was running successfully before the return of Arthur Andersen to Nigeria as Andersen Tax and I was appointed as the Country Managing Partner and head of Africa. I have advised many multi-national companies and added value to their businesses in my work experience. I sit on the Board of some companies. I believe I have gained enough experience to contribute to the management of 47 Park Street if given the chance."

Name: Douglas Engmann
Home: San Francisco, California
Occupation: Chairman, Sage Brokerage Holdings
Comments: "My primary interest in serving on the Members Committee is to encourage a greater digital interface between the members and management, our reservations service, and the Grand Residences exchange program. With members from around the world, it is important that we give them online access to information and services that will allow full enjoyment of their membership. As an entrepreneur in the finance industry who has also served as a senior executive of ABN AMRO and Societe Generale in the US, I believe that I could help spark some innovation in the communications with our members and their ability to manage their stays, reservations and experiences at Park Street through an online channel. I am a hotel condo owner and board member at the Silverado Resort and Country Club in Napa, California as well as an owner at the Trump International Hotels in New York and Chicago and will bring those experiences to the Members Committee. My wife and two adult daughters have been members since 2007, and have thoroughly enjoyed our London home at 47 Park Street, and hope we can contribute our ideas for an even greater experience for all our members."

Name: Bruce Ortwine
Home: New York, New York
Occupation: Attorney (actively employed)
Comments: "I am an attorney with over 36 years experience in corporate, financial and banking law and am General Counsel Americas and Adviser Global Legal and Compliance to a major international bank, with London offices. I have served for 33 years as a director of a cooperative corporation 175 unit residential apartment building in Manhattan. Responsibilities include planning and approval of annual budgets and capital improvement projects, managing relations with staff and maximizing the value of shareholder investments. I also serve as director or professional advisor to several non-profit organizations, including the Rutgers University Law School Center for Corporate Law and Governance. My wife and I have been residents of 47 Park Street since January 2014 and love our part-time Mayfair home. I respectfully suggest my extensive experience in law, finance and residential building operations will provide value to the Members Committee. It would be my honor to serve. Thank you."

Candidate Profiles

Name: Rosalia Portela de Pablo
Home: Madrid, Spain
Occupation: Independent Advisor and Board Member
Comments: “I have served for the last 3 years at the Members Committee and would like to continue for a new 3 year term. I enjoy the task of contributing to the best service and customer satisfaction of the 47 Park Street Residence. For me this is an honor and enjoyable task.”

Name: David Roylance
Home: Bellaire, Texas
Occupation: Business Owner
Comments: “We invested in 47 Park Street to provide a luxury home while on business and share the wonder of the area with our two daughters. I have enjoyed the location through its many transitions since 1985 while visiting London for business at ConocoPhillips, NRG, and my own companies. I welcome the opportunity to again participate on the Member Committee, as your resource, to ensure all Member investments and operations are focused toward continuing a legacy of great service and quality amenities. It is important to me that our facility be representative of the luxury expectations of its Members while being mindful of operating expenses. We have all come to expect luxury, convenience and service at good value. In various leadership roles for investor owned companies, and now as a business owner, I have learned how to represent diverse interests to deliver benefits in a fiscally responsible manner. I previously served on the Committee. I look forward to bringing my Committee and leadership experience as a resource for the facility’s management and for the benefit of the Members.”
