Name: Susan Freudigman
Home: Bloomfield Hills, Michigan
Occupation: Human Resource Facilitator - Retired
Comments: "I have owned Marriott timeshares since 1999 in Florida and Las Vegas. I have served 6 years on the Grand Chateau Board of Directors. I would like to resume using the experience I've gained to maintain the high level of service this property has given us. Being retired, I have the time and a wealth of experience to offer including the ability to work well with people. I have had successful experience managing budgets and personnel, and I thrive on problem solving. I am organized, creative, and love life and the people I meet in my travels. I feel it is important for a board member to always be open to new ideas, use common sense and enjoy a cohesive relationship with the management team, who have kept the association fees low, while maintaining our property as a highly desirable destination."

Name: Lisa Hoston
Home: Silver Spring, Maryland
Occupation: Training & Organizational Development Manager
Comments: "My name is Lisa Hoston and I would like to serve on the Board of Directors. I have been a Marriott Vacation Club Grand Chateau owner in good standing since 2007. I have enjoyed my many vacations at Marriott hotels and resorts, and now, desire to assist the organization with my talents and knowledge. I currently work in Human Resources management at Live! Casino & Hotel in Hanover, Maryland. I believe that my experience in the gaming, hospitality, and entertainment industry, Master of Business Administration education, and leadership skills can bring much benefit to the Board of Directors. I look forward to putting my knowledge, skills and abilities toward good efforts and, of course, great vacation experiences! Regards, Lisa Hoston"

Name: David Miles
Home: Leesburg, Virginia
Occupation: Career Consulting
Comments: "My wife and I own the equivalent of 12 Marriott timeshares, both in deeded property and in destination points. With my background of 25 years of service with Marriott (retired 1992) and 20+ years as co-owner of Miles LeHane Companies, a strategic management and leadership consulting firm, I truly understand the difference between good and great service. I believe the Board needs to work closely with the property management team, to achieve this level of service and operating efficiency in this resource restricted business environment. I am currently serving as President of the Board of Directors at Grand Chateau and as a Board Member and Finance Committee Member at Grande Vista as well as in Aruba, Ocean Watch appeals Board. I would be honored to continue serving and kindly ask for your vote. Thank you for your support."

My experience includes running a law practice while also leading Medicare operations for a large health insurance company, as well as fundraising/volunteering for the Leukemia & Lymphoma Society and a community choir. My dual careers and volunteerism have given me a unique way of approaching situations, and my leadership skills have been honed while I build mutually-beneficial relationships, uniting groups/individuals with diverse interests, and ensuring that all parties are fully-represented and satisfied with the outcomes.
